President Corner

By Anna Popovich

When I first joined the Italian Club in 1993, never in my wildest dream could I have imagined becoming the first women president, 16 years later. This was a man's organization started 90 years ago, with women being separated from the men. Now the women are an active part of the club.

There were several people along the way, those who are no longer with us and at present, who supported and encouraged me, for this I am grateful.

Thank you Mike Kaczor who allowed me to participate in becoming an officer. Thank you Brian DiJulio for the support over all these years.

Thank you Mr. Lou Guzzo for sending me such a heart-warming letter. He by the way just turned 90 years. Lou sends his very best to all the club members. He has so much pride and love for The Italian Club, that he wished he was able to be active in the club. God Bless You Lou.

My feelings from the time I joined the club until the present is the same with admiration and respect I have for the people past and present. My departed brothers would be very proud of me. My brother Fr Carmen Sacco S.J. pastor of St. Rita's Church in Tacoma has been very supportive.

Now we move on to a great year 2009 with all the people who make this club very special. I look forward

SECRETARY'S REPORT ... February, 2009 By Dennis Caldirola

Our latest tally as of January 27th, shows that we have 261 members in the Italian Club and of them, 212 have paid their dues for 2009. Unfortunately, we had one more newly-joined couple resign because of too many social commitments. Also, as per the bylaws, late notices will be mailed to those in arrears on February 16th.

Many of you have responded to our appeal for your email addresses and for that, we are thankful. The day is not too far off when we can do email

"blasts" to keep you appraised of last-minute changes in the calendar due to snow or other circumstances and it also means that many of you can visit www.italianclubofseattle.org and read il Ficcanaso online in glorious color!

If you plan to attend the February meeting, you can save both yourself and the Club 42¢ each by paying your dues in person and having your membership card issued immediately. Please remember to bring your email address.

FEBRUARY: The month of Love and Presidents. Happy Valentine's Day.

Thank goodness, "NO SNOW or ICE." The cold weather is lingering, but that soon will give way to a warmer sunny spring.

Want to share with you; I am at this time in sunny San Francisco. I came down to attend a friend's Mass and reception. The weather has been cooperative and beautiful. Temperature right now is "69 degrees". Shirtsleeve weather. Having fun and enjoying myself. (Behaving too)

I thank all you for sharing your thoughts about this column. I do the best I can with the info I am given or have. Sometimes a lot and sometimes a little. It's you, our members, and WHAT you are willing to share, that helps your "INFORMER" get the news in print.

I do go on and on. Let's begin. I have a problem each month. How and with what should I begin? Do you mind if we start this month with our 3rd. Wednesday lunch gathering? Our Editor, Nick, has already written the info, but I would like to add my 10 cents. We are going to give it a try this month and have one. "WILL YOU BE THERE?" GOOD.

We have changed the location; there is no parking fee, and no stairs. The date: Wednesday, February 18th. The place--THE COURTYARD, Marriott, and the address is 925 West Lake Ave North, Seattle. (Our Christmas Party was held there.) The price: $20.00

Our Speaker will be Amanda Fox; she represents "OrGana Gold". A bio is on our cover. I thank Michael Kaczor for his assistance in obtaining Amanda. She will have samples of her product for the attendees. Reservations are a must, I'll be happy to take them and your money ($20.00) at our meeting on February 12. You can call me, but please, no later than Sunday February 15th. Once I have given the number of reservations to the Event Coordinator, we are committed. So, please, reservations, and door prizes are appreciated. You are always so generous.

The menu: NORTH WEST SALAD, LEMON-ROSEMARY CHICKEN WITH WILD RICE PILAF, DESSERT, AND COFFEE TEA OR ME. (Couldn't resist)

Among the missed Past Presidents at our December luncheon were Charlotte Pagni and her Daughter, Linda Pagni Desimone, also a past President. Linda called their regrets, due to the weather. She then informed us that Charlotte hasn't been doing that well and asked to be remembered. Let's remember Charlotte and all our Home Bound members in our prayers and thoughts.

Our prayer and remember list gets a little longer this time of year ... it's the weather.

Prayers and sympathy to Sally Guinasso and family on the passing of their brother, Judge Charles Guinasso. Relatives include Barbara, Sharon and Dawn Peretti.

We hear that Carl and Reita Romei will soon have new addresses. Bless you both.

Earl Hoffa is having a difficult time. He was in the hospital and is now at Wash. Care Center, which is close to home, for P.T. Take care Earl and Mary.

Good note, hear that Mary Lou Leone is doing much better and is glad to be out and about.

I tried to call Lena Boitano, no answer, hope that means good news too. Thoughts and prayers.

It was a special New Year's Eve for the Father of the Bride Monte, and Margaret Marchetti. Monte's daughter was married on that special night. Congratulations.

We congratulate Richard and Carol

Riotto and many more years of wedded bliss on their 42nd wedding anniversary. Continued love and happiness to you and yours.

Had a call from Margaret Murray and asked for prayers for Carmen, She had another stroke and is now at Anderson House for rehabilitation for a week or two. Prayers are coming your way Carmen and you Margaret.

Congratulations to Brian DiJulio on his appointment as the President of the Board of Governors of the Casa Board. We thank Lou De Laurenti for his many years of service, time and energy.

Belated Birthday greeting to Governor Al Rosellini on his 99th. Birthday. God bless you and many more Governor.

Some of our travelers hope they found the sunshine and had a good time, welcome home:

Joe & Barbara Galluccio, Jerry & July Lewis and all you other travelers that were lucky enough to get away from the snow and cold.

In closing, want to share some proverbs that I enjoy.

"Everyone has a photographic memory. Some don't have film."

"Honk if you love peace and quiet."

"On the keyboard of life, always keep one finger on the escape key."

My real favorite, "Accept that some days you are the pigeon and some days the statute." Amen

Take care, see you at the meeting. I'll take your luncheon reservation and money and any news you are willing to share that night. THANK YOU...

LOVE & PEACE. STAY HEALTHY

Your friend, The INFORMER. Carolyn, aka sister.

Lent in Italy

Italy, with Venice's annual festivities, is much more famous for Carnevale, the day before Lent begins, than it is for the 40-day countdown to Easter. However, among Catholics, who make up the majority of Italy, Lent is the holiest time of year. And there is much work to do in preparation of the anniversary of when Jesus rose from the dead.

Known as Quaresima, or the 40th day, in Italian, Lent is the word Catholics use to describe the fast before Easter. The idea is to abstain from certain things, especially on Fridays, as penance for our sins, and to reflect on Jesus' resurrection, especially on Sundays during Lent. Forty is a significant number in the Bible - to name a few examples, Moses is on the mountain for 40 days, it rains for 40 days and nights in the story of Noah's Arc, and Jesus spent 40 days in the wilderness praying and fasting, according to religion and Bible experts.

Today, many Catholics - including many Italians - still make sacrifices or changes during Lent in an attempt to be closer to Jesus. The most well-known tradition during Lent is meatless Fridays. On Ash Wednesday and every Friday until Easter arrives, Catholics refrain from eating any sort of meat. Fish, vegetables, and fruits are acceptable. The very old, the very young, and the sick are exempt from this rule and can eat meat if they so choose. Some Italian Catholics refrain from eating meat on Fridays year round. It's a personal choice and is no longer a Church rule.

A Prelude to Lent ... Venice Carnival 2009

The Venice Carnival is the largest and most important Venetian festival, an appreciated cocktail of tradition, entertainment, history and transgression in a unique city, a festival that attracts thousands of people from around the world each year.

The Carnival has very old origins. It is a festival that celebrates the passage from winter into spring, a time when seemingly anything is possible, including the illusion where the most humble of classes become the most powerful by wearing masks on their faces.

The official start of the Venice Carnival dates back to 1296, when the Senate of the Republic made the Carnival official with an edict declaring the day before Lent a public holiday.

After an interruption lasting almost two centuries, the tradition of Carnival was rediscovered by the Municipality in 1980 and since then it has taken place every year with success. The 2009 edition, which will go on from February 13 to 24, will be called "Sensation, 6 senses for 6 districts" and will accompany visitors in the discovery of the city's charming atmospheres, passing through the districts with a constant appeal to the senses, an invitation to immerse yourself fully into the emotional experience that only the Venice Carnival can give.

It is truly a celebration of Carnival in the dark, when the first sense that comes into play is "touch", kicking off the festivities on Saturday, February 14 in the Castello district. A sensory journey based on a show that will bring you plenty of surprises.

For Lent ... Linguine alla Ricotta - (Linguine with Ricotta)

- 1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter
- 1 large garlic clove, minced
- 3/4 pound ricotta cheese
- 2 tablespoons whipping cream
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh Italian parsley
- 9 ounces linguine
- Parmesan cheese

Melt butter in heavy small saucepan over medium heat. Add garlic and saute two minutes. Combine ricotta, cream, parsley and butter mixture in large bowl. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Cook linguine in large pot of boiling salted water until just tender but still firm to bite, stirring occasionally. Drain. Toss with ricotta mixture. Serve immediately with Parmesan cheese. Serves 2

Valentine's Day in Italy

Romantic Festival of Valentine's Day is celebrated with enthusiasm in the beautiful country of Italy. Lovers take opportunity of the day to express love and affection for their beloved. Loads of Valentine's Day gifts are exchanged and everyone enjoys the day to the hilt.

History of Valentine's Day in Italy

Valentine's Day was initially celebrated as a Spring Festival in Italy. Celebration for the day was held in the open air. Young people would gather in tree arbors or ornamental gardens and enjoy listening to music and reading of poetry. Later they would stroll off with their Valentine into the gardens. The custom steadily ceased over the course of years and has not been celebrated for centuries.
