Wonderful People

As I write my last article as President of the Italian Club, I wish to thank all of you who have supported me in the last two years. Thank you to all the board members who have served so diligently. It's been a joy to see all the enthusiasm they brought to the club.

Since joining the club I always wanted to participate in all the events, knowing that you would meet great people and still have some fun. I hope all the new members will get involved and support our new president and his board. The past two years has been a privilege and honor to serve the Italian Club. What a wonderful group of people, GOD BLESS. Mille Grazie.

Childrens Christmas Party is a Hit By Nancy Grossi

The children's Christmas party hosted by the Italian Club and chaired by Tom and Nancy Grossi was a hit! With a new first class location, the event featured great food; santa and a puppet show which all help to start the season off beautifully. 23 children and 50 adults were in attendance. As guests checked-in, children were given santa hats and the adults were offered cinnamon rolls. The room was decorated with poinsettias, lights, and a huge Christmas tree. Tables were decorated with Christmas chains in Italian colors and yummy candy. Everyone ate scrambled eggs; sausage/bacon and potatoes all provided by the very talented Judy Lewis and her catering company, Celebrations Catering. Endless coffee and water was served by the local coffee shop, The Coffee Drop Café.

With Nick Grossi playing his accordion and all the children singing "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" the puppet troupe "Giraffe and Staff" were setting up their 10-foot stage for a holiday puppet show featuring "George" the eight-foot giraffe and his friends. Sharon, the puppeteer, did a great job getting all the children involved in the show and had everyone smiling and laughing. The puppet show ended with "George the Giraffe" announcing he heard some jingle bells. All was quiet and in enters Santa while Nick Grossi started playing "Here Comes Santa Claus" and a rousing chorus thundered throughout, welcoming Santa to our party. Children were wide-eyed and jumping up and down with excitement, seeing Santa. One by one each child sat on Santa's lap and told them their sincerest desires and were each given a present.

Everyone departed the event with happy little children clutching their gifts and chocolate on their faces and wishing each other a very Merry Christmas. If you didn't get to the Christmas party this

HAPPY HOLIDAY DINNER by Joanne Spino Marchese, Chair, Adult Christmas Party

Our annual Christmas party was a wonderful event attended by many of our members. Our room at the Embassy Suites was decorated in a very festive Christmas fashion.

The early evening began with a social/cocktail hour including three gaming tables. The tables were full and enjoyed by all playing blackjack.

During the social/cocktail hour and after dessert music was provided by Rick Bloom. Dinner was served with selected choices of prime rib, baked chicken or baked salmon followed by a scrumptious dessert.

Following dinner were door prize drawings and a great raffle with many nice gifts.

We also had a surprise visit from Santa (Jim DeCaro, my nephew-in-law) who had treats for our guests, heard what was on their wish lists, and of course had pictures taken. Hopefully Santa remembered and everyone received what they were wishing for.

A huge thank you to Nick Grossi for the colorful Christmas flyer in il Ficcanaso; to Bob Popovich for overseeing the gaming tables and his dealers, Mike Lazzaretti, Lou Fontana and Carolyn Jackson; to Ray and Caroline Petre and Barbara Peretti for covering the check-in table; to Rick Bloom for the music; to Anna Popovich, Monte Marchetti and Audrey Manzanares for helping with the raffle; to our Santa (Jim DeCaro) and his helper Elf Gianna Marchese (my granddaughter); to Bill Picchena for donations of door prizes; to Lavazza Coffee and San Gennaro Foods for their generous donations of coffee and polenta; and to all who attended and made this such a festive event.

Thank you and Happy New Year - and may 2011 bring health, happiness and peace to all.

5th Annual Seattle Mariners' Italian Heritage Night By Martin Nigrelle

Wednesday June 15th 2011, 7:10pm the Mariners will be taking on the Los Angeles Angels. The giveaway item for this year's game will be an Italian themed baseball cap.

The Mariners are still working on further details of the event & are looking into different options that may help increase the marketing of the event & subsequently the size of the crowd buying tickets just for the event. More details will be provided as they become available. The Mariners web site for the event has not been redesigned for the 2011 season yet, a link to the site will be included once the Mariners have updated their web site.

The Italian Club will likely purchase a set of tickets the same as last year, but this has not been confirmed yet. More details will be published in the February edition of the il Ficcanso. The tickets will be available on a first come – first serve basis, both through the club & through the Mariners. More details on ticket availability as soon as they are available.

A very happy, blessed and healthy new year to you and yours.

2011 here we come.

Time to make your New Year's Resolutions. I tried to make some that were not way out, but some that I hope I would be able to accomplish. "When I wake up in the morning, I tell myself, "My purpose is to _____ today." #1. "Try to make at least three people smile" #2. "Don't take myself so serious, no one else does." #3. "No one is in charge of my happiness, except "ME". And finally "To remember that I am too blessed to be stressed." A Happy and blessed New Year.

It's been a while that I started writing the Health and Welfare Column, the two words Health and Welfare says it all. We're praying for your health and sharing in your daily welfare. It's nice to know there are friends and new members interested in our well being.

I personally am happy to see 2010 gone, but it's not forgotten. Into all our lives some rain must fall, but we don't want a flood. To have a rainbow, we have been told, it takes SUNSHINE AND RAIN. Then comes the beautiful colorful rainbow, with its pot of gold. Thank you dear Lord.

It's a New Year ... let's see what we can share about Health and Welfare?

To all that will be celebrating birthdays in January, Happy Birthday. Your birthstone is a garnet and your flower is a carnation" Good health and a year full of happiness.

We announced at our December meeting that Gino Marchese had knee surgery on Dec. 8th. Gino is now home and obeying his doctor and Joanne. You have been in our prayers Gino.

Speaking of the Marcheses' ... A great big thank you to Joanne, chairman of our great Christmas party and to her committee. We thank them all for their efforts in making the party fun and successful. A special thank you to one of our future members, Gianna Marchese, Joanne's granddaughter. Whatever she was asked to do, it was promptly done, oh to be young again.

I was sorry to miss the Childrens' Party, but heard it was great. We thank Tom and Nancy Grossi for giving the Children (and the adults that attended) a day to remember. What a blessed start for the Christmas season.

Another announcement made at our December meeting was a wedding . Best wishes and loving congratulations to Joseph Paul Sargent and Deborah Marie Quien. May God bless you, Mr. and Mrs. Sargent, love, health and happiness.

We missed Bill and Angela Wright at our December meeting, but they were visiting in Arizona, welcoming, helping and loving their 14th grandchild, Faith Ashley Williams. Faith was born on December 1. Bill and Angela now have four granddaughters and ten grandsons. God bless them all children, parents and grandparents. Angela was sweet in her note, she said, " It's wonderful enjoying our month away and hopefully we are being helpful with adjusting a third child at this busy, but beautiful time of the year." Thank you Angela and Bill for sharing your joy.

We hope the Ruppins are enjoying their R & R in California. See you at the meetings.

If you see a "red streak" going down the road, It's not a comet or meteor" it's just Sister Mary in her new red car. Safe driving Sister.

Prayers to Orlie and Velva Saltarelli. Our condolence on the loss of Orlie's brother, Larry. Condolences also to Larry's granddaughter our new member, Audrey Manzaneres, Orlie and Velva's great niece.

Orlie was under the weather, pneumonia and unable to attend his brother's funeral. We hope you're much better Orlie and getting out and about, carefully. This weather doesn't help much.

It's for the birds, no they don't want it either. Although, it beats snow. Let us all resolve to take care of ourselves, take it easy and stay healthy.

On January 23 there will be a Gov. Rosellini Scholarship dinner at Kennedy High School. The dinner is being sponsored by The Seattle Fedele Lodge No. 1390 of the Sons of Italy. All Proceeds will go into this scholarship fund. A great tribute and cause assisting our youth with their education. Tickets and information may be obtained from Chairman, Jeff D'Amelio .(206) 963-8763. Email: jeffdamelio@live.com.

The well is running dry, can't think of any other news to share.

We thank our outgoing officers for the unselfish giving of their time and energy. 2010 will go down in our history as successful and a year of growth and unity.

To our New Officers, thank you for saying YES, you have our support, cooperation and PRAYERS.

For your information, the luncheons are being planned for April, June and November 2011. September is the Festa Luncheon.

A couple to close this column:

"I used to be indecisive. Now I'm not sure."

"Whenever I fill out an application, in the part that says "if an emergency, notify:" I put DOCTOR."

Last but not least: "Nostalgia isn't what it used to be."

Happy January 2011. Remember our shut-ins and if the spirit moves you, send a card, make a call or just remember try and make a person smile. It's good for them and you.

AMEN.

The H & W informer.
